Pratt & Whitney Open An Office At Williams Gateway Airport

MESA, Ariz.- Pratt & Whitney recently opened an office at Williams Gateway Airport. The Mesa location will provide market and sales support for the Southwest and Mexican regions.

Pratt & Whitney, the second new Airport tenant to be announced this month, will be located at 5865 S. Sossaman Road in the office-hangar complex south of the Airport Administration Building.

“Williams Gateway offers Pratt & Whitney a great opportunity with a first-class operation and first-class people,” said Technical Sales and Support Representative Jeff Soderberg. “The City of Mesa has been very easy to work with and the Airport has a tremendous amount of potential.”

“Aviation-related businesses like Pratt & Whitney complement the economic development we want to create in the Williams Gateway Area,” Mesa Mayor Keno Hawker said. “We welcome this established international company to Mesa and look forward to working with them.”

Pratt & Whitney, a United Technologies Company, builds engines for large and small aircraft, sophisticated weapon systems, space vehicles and land-based gas turbines. The company has over 8,000 customers around the world flying 70,000 engines. Pratt & Whitney currently has representatives in 76 cities in 47 nations, and partnerships and joint ventures in Asia and Europe.

The Airport is owned and operated by the Williams Gateway Airport Authority that includes the Gila River Indian Community, Gilbert, Mesa and Queen Creek.
