

X-Air Inc. Opens Aircraft Maintenance Shop and Helicopter Flight School at Williams Gateway Airport

MESA, Ariz. – March 1, 2006 – X-Air, Inc., an aircraft maintenance company helicopter flight school, is Williams Gateway Airport's newest tenant. Located in a newly constructed hangar/office complex with a state-of-the-art fire suppression system, X-Air is authorized to conduct major repairs inside their facility.

"We are the only on-call maintenance operation at Williams Gateway," said X-Air President Mike Kirchner. "We chose to locate at Williams Gateway because there is a high demand for an aircraft maintenance facility here. Our FAA certified maintenance staff has over 70 years combined experience working on a wide variety of general aviation aircraft."

"We are excited to welcome X-Air to Williams Gateway Airport as they bring more quality jobs and aviation activity," said WGAA Executive Director Lynn Kusy.

The public is welcome to visit X-Air at Williams Gateway Airport's Third Annual Open House on Sat., Mar. 11 from 9 a.m.-1 p.m.

Williams Gateway Airport is owned and operated by the Williams Gateway Airport Authority, which includes the Gila River Indian Community, Gilbert, Mesa and Queen Creek. For more information, visit www.flywga.org.
